

Verzeichnis der Archivalien in Kopie

Die hier aufgeführten Archivalienkopien, stammen alle aus der Sammlung des emeritieren Professors für Mittelalterliche Geschichte der Universität Hamburg Prof. Dr. Jürgen Sarnowsky. Die Kopien sind seit dem Sommer 2021 in physischer Form in der Bibliothek der Forschungsstelle Deutscher Orden.

Die Archivalienkopien beinhalten im Wesentlichen Inhalte zum Deutschen Orden sowie zum Johanniterorden. Der Hauptbestand besteht aus Kopien aus dem Geheimen Staatsarchiv Preußischer Kulturbesitz, hierin vor allem Ordensfolianten, Ordensbriefarchiv und Pergamenturkunden sowie ein großer Bestand an Kopien der National Library of Malta. Zudem gibt es etliche weitere Kopien aus verschiedenen europäischen Archiven. Wichtige Dokumente, wie beispielsweise Kopien der Goldenen Bulle von Rimini, sowie der Kulmer Handfeste oder den Statuten des Johanniterordens in verschiedenen Sprachen lassen sich in unserer Bibliothek einsehen. Viele weitere Archivalienkopien, wie etwa die einer Pergamenturkunde aus dem 14. Jahrhundert, in der der Deutschmeister Siegfried von Venningen die Ergebnisse der Visitation in den deutschen Landen anzeigt, können ebenfalls nun in der Bibliothek der Forschungsstelle Deutscher Orden gefunden werden.

Um die Archivalienkopien vor Ort einzusehen, muss eine E-Mail mit den gewünschten Kopien an folgende Adresse (deutscher-orden@uni-wuerzburg.de) gesendet werden.
