

Checklist for Exchange Students

After you have applied to study at the University of Würzburg (steps to your application) and have received your letter of acceptance, there are still a few things you will need to do before beginning your studies. The following is a step-by-step list of what you should do:

- Apply for a student visa (Visum für Studienzwecken) at the German Embassy
More Information.
- Accommodation search
More information.
- Take out health insurance
Advice on health insurance.
- Online Enrolment
More information.
- Learning Agreement
If your home University needs a Learning Agreement, find here useful information.
- Course selection and schedule
Students at German universities plan their own course schedule. More information.
- Getting here
 - By airplane: Airport Frankfurt/Main or Nürnberg with direct ICE-train connections to Würzburg <https://www.frankfurt-airport.com/en.html>, <https://www.airport-nuernberg.de/english>.
 - By train: Easily accessible from all directions: <https://www.bahn.com/en/view/index.shtml>.
 - Public transport in Würzburg: With the WVV (timetables at https://www.bayern-fahrplan.de/en/journey-planner?set_language=en) problem-free to the various university buildings and student dormitories.
 - By car: There are city maps and site plans on the internet for your orientation in town or upon your arrival by car: : <https://wueaddress.uni-wuerzburg.de/search/map?q=>
- Dormitory
 - If you have reserved a room at a dormitory with the Studentenwerk Würzburg, you can obtain your key from the facilities manager of the respective dormitory Monday to Thursday between 7:30 am and 4:00 pm and on Fridays between 7:30 am and 1:00 pm. This does not apply on holidays.
 - Please note these holidays when planning your travel! Public holidays in March or April (dates vary each year): Good Friday (Karfreitag) and Easter Monday (Ostermontag).
Check out the holidays in Bavaria.
 - Public holiday on the 3rd of October: Day of German Reunification (Tag der Deutschen Einheit).
- Student ID Card
To receive the Student ID card, you must first complete the online enrollment. You will also need to send some documents to the International Office Incoming by email. More information.
- Important events after arrival
You should definitely visit the following events:
 - The orientation event of your faculty. More information.

- The welcome reception and the First Steps orientation events of the International Office Incoming. The reception takes place a few days before the start of term. You will be informed of the exact time and date as soon as possible.
- Language level test for courses in German: Please check the dates for the test.
- Registration of your residence at the registration office
Further information.
- Apply for a resident permit (NOT for EU citizen)
Further information.
- Enjoy Würzburg and get to know people.
Here you can find events and activities.

Packing list:

Documents:

- ✓ Passport (non-EU citizens) or ID card (EU citizens)
- ✓ Visa (non-EU citizens)
- ✓ Letter of Acceptance
- ✓ Confirmation of financial means (e.g., scholarship confirmation, only non-EU citizens)
- ✓ If paid in home country: Confirmation of payment of semester fee.
- ✓ Confirmation of health insurance (see above)
- ✓ If available: Vaccination card
- ✓ If you want to drive by car in Germany: International drivers' licence

Other

- ✓ 220 power adapter or a German plug system adapter
- ✓ Clothes for all types of weather. Würzburg enjoys a lot of sun, but can also get cold in winter and get rain in spring and fall.