ZHEJIANG UNIVERSITY

An aerial night photograph of the Zhejiang University campus. The central focus is a large, modern building with a distinctive, curved, glass-and-steel facade. The building is illuminated, and its reflection is visible in the water in the foreground. The surrounding campus is also lit up, with various buildings and green spaces visible. In the background, the city lights of Hangzhou are visible under a twilight sky.

2. Orientation

Orientation week is at the beginning of each new semester, right after the date of registration. Exchange students are strongly advised to take part in the orientation as instructions will be given on course registration.

3. Study Programs

Undergraduate Study Program

Students taking part in this program should be undergraduate students at their home university. They will have the opportunity to take courses with ZJU students.

Please refer to the tentative English course-list for undergraduate students and indicate on the application in which school or department they would like to study at ZJU. Please note that not all the courses on the list will be available each semester and the exchange students will be able to register for the courses only after the start of the new semester, during the orientation.

Students admitted in this program could also take courses on Chinese language and courses on China Profile (both courses include 48 teaching hours per semester).

Postgraduate Study Program

Students taking part in this program should be graduate students at their home university. They will have the opportunity to take courses with ZJU students.

Please refer to the tentative English course-list for graduate students and indicate on the application in which school or department they would like to study at ZJU. Please note that not all the courses on the list will be available each semester and the exchange students will be able to register for the courses only after the start of the new semester, during the orientation.

Students admitted in this program could also take courses on Chinese language (32 teaching hours per semester) and courses on China Profile (48 teaching hours per semester).

Graduate students in this program could also have the opportunity to do research projects at ZJU instead of taking courses. In this case, the students should indicate in which school/college/department they would like to do research at ZJU and provide a detailed research plan attached to the application.

Intensive Chinese Language and Culture

ZJU offers intensive courses on Chinese language and culture on different levels for international students. Students are to be placed in classes that suit them best by taking a Chinese proficiency test.

The intensive Chinese language and culture program includes 18 teaching hours (1 teaching hour is equivalent to 45 minutes at ZJU) of compulsory courses per week, including reading, listening, practical conversation and writing, etc. Besides, the students could take no more than 2 elective courses on Chinese society and culture per semester.

4. Credit System

Full-degree undergraduate students at ZJU are required to get a minimum of 15 credits per semester and a total of 169 credits during their 4-5 years study program. Full-degree graduate students at ZJU are required to get a total of 26 credits during their 2-2.5 years study program. Full-degree PhD students at ZJU are required to get a total of 14 credits during their 3-3.5 years study program. 1 credit at ZJU is equivalent to 16 teaching hours. Currently we do not have any credit requirements for exchange students. The transcripts for exchange students will be issued at the end of each semester and be sent to the home university coordinators.

5. Insurance

Fee: 400 RMB yuan/semester

According to the regulations of Ministry of Education, international students who come to our school to study for one semester or longer must purchase comprehensive medical insurance in mainland of China as a necessary requirement for their registration for the new semester.

Students who fail to purchase the comprehensive medical insurance which meet certain requirements will NOT be registered by the university.

Information related will be notified in detail before registration. The admitted students should handle insurance affairs strictly according to the instructions on the notice.

6. Number of Exchange Students

Please contact ZJU coordinator to know the maximum number of exchange students we could accept for each semester/per academic year.
