

Uni Würzburg Community-Treffen London vom 4. – 6. Dezember 20225, das Programm wird von Alumni für Alumni erstellt und bietet Einblicke hinter die Kulissen!

Begleitet wird die Gruppe von der Vizepräsidentin für Internationales und Alumni, Professorin Dr. Doris Fischer – der Hintergrund der Fahrt ist die Eröffnung der Regionalgruppe Großbritannien.

Donnerstag, 4.12.2025 ,Start und Eröffnung Regionalgruppe Großbritannien‘

- 20 Uhr, Blick hinter die Kulissen bei Alumnus Tobias Spreehle, CFA, Chief Executive Officer PANTA Index Technology, www.panta.ai
Treffpunkt: <https://share.google/LzRqa8nbgemn5szNz>, Southwark Station
- Danach Opening Regionalgruppe mit Drinks
Pub der Nähe, tba

Freitag, 5.12.2025, Universität und Unternehmen & Blick hinter die Kulissen in Cambridge

- 10 Uhr, Austausch mit Prof.in Dr. Yafa Shanneik, sie hat einen ERC Grant an der University of London, am School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS und wird uns ihre Forschung vorstellen, 10 Thornhaugh St, London WC1H 0XG
- 12 Uhr Insight mit Alumnus Wolfgang Menig, Herax Partners, Queen Anne Mansions 86-87 Wimpole Street, London
- Exkursion nach Cambridge:
14.12 Direct train from King's Cross London to Cambridge
15.00 Arrive Cambridge, Abholung von Alumnus (about 30 minutes walk or taxis) to Gonville and Caius College
15.30 Welcome Tea and Cake at Caius
16.30 Tour of Caius College (and the centre of the University of Cambridge) with Dr. Anita Bunyan, Associate Professor of Gonville and Caius College (Anita Bunyan teaches and researches in nineteenth and twentieth-century German literature and history. She is particularly interested in German-Jewish culture, has published on nineteenth century German-Jewish authors and history, and is working on a study of Modern German-Jewish writing. She has also published on the relationship between literature and history.)

17.30 Exchange and presentation by Prof. Dr. Axel J. Zeitler, JMU Alumnus and Professor of Microstructure Engineering, Deputy Headship (Research), Director of Research
18.30 Drinks reception in L4 Caius Court
19.30 Dinner in Cambridge
ca. 21.30 Depart for London

Samstag, 6.12.2025; Austausch mit diversen Persönlichkeiten in London

- 11 Uhr Treffen & Austausch mit Alumna Antje Palmer, Group Head of Tax at Blue Coast Capital / Lewis Trust Group, Seymour Mews House, 26-37 Seymour Mews, London W1H 6BN
- Lunch tba
- 16 Uhr Rückblick in die Geschichte mit Andrew Fried, London. Seine Tante Flora Fried und deren Ehemann Paul Feldman waren von 1924 – 1927 Medizinstudenten an der Universität Würzburg, Ort tba
- Evening Aperitif mit Alumna Katja Strohfeld, Professor in Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Education, Associate Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Education, and Student Experience), University of Reading

University of Würzburg Community Meeting in London, 4–6 December 2025

The program is created by alumni for alumni and offers exclusive behind-the-scenes insights!

The group will be accompanied by the Vice President for International Affairs and Alumni, Professor Dr. Doris Fischer. The background of the trip is the inauguration of the United Kingdom Regional Group.

Thursday, 4 December 2025 – “Kick-off and Opening of the UK Regional Group”

8:00 p.m. – Behind-the-scenes visit with alumnus Tobias Sproehle, CFA, Chief Executive Officer, PANTA Index Technology
Meeting point: <https://share.google/LzRqa8nbgemn5szNz>, Southwark Station

Afterwards: Opening of the UK Regional Group with drinks Pub nearby, tba

Friday, 5 December 2025 – University & Business / Behind-the-Scenes in Cambridge

10:00 a.m. – Exchange with Prof. Dr. Yafa Shanneik, ERC Grant holder at the University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)
Address: 10 Thornhaugh St, London WC1H 0XG

12:00 p.m. – Insight session with alumnus Wolfgang Menig, Herax Partners
Address: Queen Anne Mansions, 86–87 Wimpole Street, London

Excursion to Cambridge:

14:12 – Direct train from King's Cross London to Cambridge

15:00 – Arrival in Cambridge, pickup by alumnus (approx. 30 minutes on foot or taxi) to Gonville and Caius College

15:30 – Welcome tea and cake at Caius

16:30 – Tour of Caius College (and central areas of the University of Cambridge) with Dr. Anita Bunyan, Associate Professor at Gonville and Caius College

(Dr. Bunyan teaches and researches 19th- and 20th-century German literature and history. She is particularly interested in German-Jewish culture, has published on 19th-century German-Jewish authors and history, and is working on a study of modern German-Jewish writing. She has also published on literature and history.)

17:30 – Exchange and presentation by Prof. Dr. Axel J. Zeitler, JMU alumnus and Professor of Microstructure Engineering, Deputy Head (Research), Director of Research

18:30 – Drinks reception in L4 Caius Court

19:30 – Dinner in Cambridge

Approx. 21:30 – Departure for London

Saturday, 6 December 2025 – Exchanges with distinguished personalities in London

11:00 a.m. – Meeting and exchange with alumna Antje Palmer, Group Head of Tax at Blue Coast Capital / Lewis Trust Group

Address: Seymour Mews House, 26–37 Seymour Mews, London W1H 6BN

Lunch – tba

4:00 p.m. – Historical insights with Andrew Fried, London

His aunt, Flora Fried, and her husband Paul Feldman studied medicine at the University of Würzburg from 1924–1927

Location tba

Evening – Aperitif with alumna Katja Strohfeld, Professor in Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Education, Associate Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Education and Student Experience), University of Reading