

International Workshop | 25th January 2022

moderated by Balázs Németh,

DAAD Visiting Professor at University of Würzburg, ALE Professor at Uni Pécs /
Member of the International Adult and Continuing Education Hall of Fame

Zoom-Workshop on the changing roles of international organisations in ALE and the Futures of Education Discourse: Mapping Realities

This intensive workshop will provide an insight to the choices and limitations of lifelong learning policy perspectives of international organisations, like UNESCO and EAEA/ICAE, having been influenced by UN Agenda for 2030 on SDGs, the 'Futures of Education' discourses and also by the skills-policy development led by the OECD,

Also, this platform will enable participants to see how intergovernmental and non-governmental positions and approaches may form the picture of adult and lifelong learning today!

4:00p.m. - 5:45p.m. (CET)

Opening Remarks

Balázs Németh, Professor of Adult Learning and Education, Founding Member of the Hungarian Universities Lifelong Learning Network (MELLearn), Vice-Director of PASCAL International Observatory for Central-East Europe

Adult Learning and Education 2030: Insides from the European and global debate

Uwe Gartenschläger, President of EAEA and Deputy Director of DVV International

Making lifelong learning a reality

Raul Valdes-Cotera, Senior Programme Specialist at the UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning and Programme Manager of the UNESCO Global Network of Learning Cities

Discussion through Q&A

Raul Valdes-Cotera

Uwe Gartenschläger

Balázs Németh

Please register until 21st of January via lifelong.education@uni-wuerzburg.de*

* By participating, you agree that the workshop may be recorded. The recordings are used for academic and research purposes only.

The workshop will take place via Zoom only.

You will receive a Link, registration to join, ahead of time after your Registration.