

JOINT TRANSNATIONAL STUDIES

COMPALL offers a joint module in adult education and lifelong learning that is integrated at COMPALL-partner universities (see back page) into regular study programmes related to adult and lifelong learning. All students outside the partner universities are invited to join too.

Master's and doctoral students are being prepared annually from October until January at their home universities using online tutorials. In February, all participants meet for a two-week intensive programme at the Würzburg Winter School in Germany.

Each year, about 90 students from around the globe meet in Würzburg. Join us!

TRANSNATIONAL STUDIES

The COMPALL joint module starts each year with registration by the end of October. This is followed by on-campus preparation (by partner universities) and online-preparation. Each participant submits a transnational essay on a selected aspect of adult education and lifelong learning by mid January. All participants meet in February for a two-week intensive programme at the Würzburg Winter School.

On-Campus Preparation

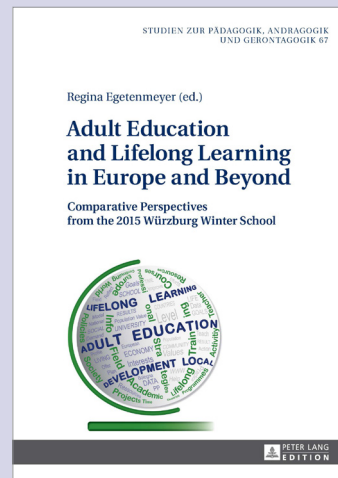

Submission of transnational essays by participants
(mid January)

INTENSIVE PROGRAMME / WINTER SCHOOL

- European and international policies in adult education and lifelong learning with field visits to adult and continuing education providers in Germany.
- Comparison of selected issues in adult education and lifelong learning (for topics see booklets produced annually): introduction, development of research categories, analysis and presentation.

FROM STUDIES TO RESEARCH

COMPALL is offering doctoral students the exclusive chance to pursue their comparative work commenced during the Winter School in an academic publication. By the end of the Winter School, groups will be formed to enable continued working on the precise comparisons identified. The publication will be supervised by international experts on the selected topics. They will be reviewed and published in an volume edited internationally.

PROFESSIONAL NETWORK

Both before and after your transnational studies, COMPALL offers you a professional network, that allows you to stay in contact with your fellow students, research their profile, and find the perfect partners for your transnational studies and research. In a public network, you will also be updated with current international study and research opportunities in adult education and lifelong learning. It is also a network that allows publication of international vacancies. The network is a forum for the next generation in international adult and lifelong learning.
