COLOMBIA

The Republic of Colombia is the fourth largest country in South America, with about 1.139.000 square kilometers of territory. It is the only South American nation that borders both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, allowing it to have 2.900 kilometers of coast.

The Colombian national territory also includes three branches of the Andes mountain range and a wide range of thermal floors and agricultural conditions that are distributed in 6 regions, 32 departments and 1.102 municipalities.

SANTIAGO DE CALI

Cali is the gateway to the Colombian Pacific where the magic of nature and vibrant culture intertwine in an eternal dance. Here, life blossoms in every corner, inviting you to discover a paradise where each day is a celebration of beauty and diversity.

Cali is home to the largest variety of birds in the world; it has more than 560 species of birds that paint the air with colors and melodies..

Academic information

Education system

Class attendance is mandatory. Undergraduate courses (Bachelor's degree) are offered from Monday to Saturday during daytime and nighttime.

The semester has three (3) evaluation periods:

First midterm exams - weeks 5 and 6

Second midterm exams - weeks 10 and 11

Final exams - weeks 17 and 18

Although most courses are in Spanish, you have the option of taking courses in English.

Grading system

The grading scale in Colombia ranges from 0 to 5.

0	-	2,9	Failed
3,0	-	3,5	Acceptable
3,6	-	4,0	Good
4,1	-	4,5	Outstanding
4,6	-	5,0	Excellent

Academic information

Academic calendar

Every semester has a duration of 18 weeks and is scheduled in the following way:

- Semester 1: January - June
- Semester 2: July - December

Academic credits

In one semester an international student should take courses for approximately 18 Colombian credits.

One (1) academic credit is equivalent to 48 hours of work distributed as follows: 16 hours of lectures and 32 hours of independent study (class preparation, reading, etc.).*

* For reference: 1 European credit (ECTS) is equivalent to 1,7 Colombian credits

Recommended academic workload

Students should register a minimum of 3 subjects and a maximum of 6. They can choose subjects from different programs but we recommend choosing at least 3 courses from the same program.
