

State University of Maringá

Best university in the State

Among the best universities
in Brazil

1st in South America
in number of researchers

22nd of the most influential scientists in the world

Main Campus - green area surrounded by tall buildings.
Photo by Anderson Theodoro

SAFETY, QUALITY OF LIFE AND FREE EDUCATION

Come study at one of the best universities in Brazil, free of charge education and in the city with the best quality of life in the country!

Maringá: Intelligent and Sustainable City

Maringá is planned from scratch as a garden city, with a focus on the future. As a young vibrant city, here you can find many opportunities for leisure, culture, quality education and employability in different areas.

UEM's main campus is located in Maringá and it also has 6 other regional campuses in small towns of Paraná State.

Main campus

Satellite campuses

Foz do Iguaçu

Curitiba

INTERNATIONALIZED UNIVERSITY IN TEACHING, RESEARCH AND EXTENSION

UEM's International Cooperation Office is the body that works with internationalization in a wide and inclusive way, i.e. it prepares the university and the community to be ready for the challenges and possibilities that exist beyond Brazil.

Beyond mobility!

At UEM you have the possibility of virtual mobility, classes in the COIL modality (collaborative online international learning) as well as participating in research projects in cooperation with the best universities in the world.

www.uem.br/international

UEM maintains partnerships with more than 80 universities and institutes around the world, in 26 countries.

Maringá Civic Center
Photo by Anderson Theodoro

Sustainability & Social Responsibility

UEM is one of the world's most sustainable universities, having committed itself to the UN's (United Nations) sustainable development goals for 2030.

Various actions and projects are carried out with the aim of studying and protecting regional biomes, building a fairer and more inclusive society with economic development, and generating opportunities for all.

Agronomy & Agribusiness for Sustainable Territorial Development

Experimental Farm

Large area for cultivation and reference laboratories where Teaching, Research and Outreach are carried out in agriculture and zootechnics.

Veterinary Hospital

Consolidated as a reference center in Clinical and Surgical Care for both small and large animals, the Veterinary Hospital acts in the prevention, treatment, prognosis and animal welfare in a large territory.

International Reputation

The undergraduate, master's and doctoral programs are internationally recognized and offer excellent opportunities for practical study and research.

Collective Health

Management and Care in the Life Cycle

The State University of Maringá (UEM) holds a health complex that includes the Regional University Hospital of Maringá (HUM), the Regional Blood Center, the Dental Clinic, the Applied Psychology Unit (UPA), the Poisoning Control Center (CCI) and several laboratories, including the Clinical Analysis Teaching and Research Laboratory (LEPAC).

UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Internship for international students in the following specialties: Clinical Medicine, Infirmary and Outpatient Clinics with Rotations in various subspecialties, Family and Community Medicine.

University Orchestra

Art & Culture

The State University of Maringá has 7 choirs; 3 museums; 2 theater groups; 2 orchestras; 1 visual arts group. Around 900,000 people are served annually in Communication, Culture, Human Rights and Justice, Education, Environment, Technology and Production, and Work Activities.

Sports & Leisure

A wide range of sports courts, fields and swimming pools for practicing a variety of sports.

Diversity, access and inclusion

Freedom to study, research and discuss

- ▶ Policies to welcome migrants and refugees
- ▶ Policies for accepting cultural and religious diversity
- ▶ Inclusion policy for under-represented groups
- ▶ Free portuguese courses for foreigners
- ▶ Subsidized meals

Science, Technology & Innovation

An extensive network of researchers and a state-of-the-art infrastructure that enables the development of basic and applied research, development of projects and innovation.

WEB OF SCIENCE

UEM is the university that carries out the most research in the south of Brazil and fifth nationally.

Available to researchers and international partners.

400+ laboratories
500+ products developed
60+ patents
70+ applications in progress
40+ softwares
Pre-incubated startups

Field Research & Applied Research

Studying at UEM gives you access to many field research projects and conservation units.

NUPELIA is an internationally renowned center that hosts several programs, projects and laboratories that carry out research and outreach activities, providing services to companies, government agencies and society in general on the conservation and life of freshwater species.

Paraná river

CHOOSE TO LIVE

NEW EXPERI ENCES

Arts and Graphic Design by Bruno Razza
Produced by UEM International Cooperation Office

UEM State University of Maringá

