Information Sheet for Student Exchange Program

The Student Exchange Program allows students from SWU’s partner university to study at SWU for one or two semesters. The credits earned at SWU can be transferred to the student’s home institution.

Quick Facts about SWU
- Student population of about 8,000 undergraduates.
- Location: 621 Hwarang-ro, Nowon-gu, Seoul 01797, Republic of Korea
- About 15 minutes’ walk from Hwarangdae Station (Subway Line 6)
- International student population: Approximately 200 annually.
- Homepage: www.swu.ac.kr/ia

Nominations
- Students should be selected by the home institution based on SWU’s admission requirement.
- Outgoing coordinators will provide the list of nominated students to the incoming coordinator at SWU.

Eligibility
Students need to meet ALL of the following requirements to be eligible to apply
- Students should be a full-time student of SWU’s partner university.
- Need to be nominated by the international office of home institution.
- Need to be able to take courses either in Korean or in English.
* Even if a nominated student meet all of these requirements, he/she would not be able to enroll if your visa application is rejected by local Korean consulate.

Visa
- Students should get a student visa (D-2) from the nearest Korean consulate, with the Certificate of Acceptance issued by Seoul Women’s University.
- The Certificate of Acceptance will be issued after accepting the original documents of application.

Medical Insurance
- All incoming international students are obligated to possess medical insurance plan that covers medical expenses to be incurred during the stay in Korea. Seoul Women's University accepts following plans:
  - International medical insurance plan that is applicable in South Korea (proof must be provided)
  - National Health Insurance
  - Foreigner Student Insurance Plan (can be purchased through the SWU International Affairs Team)
[Important] Notice of Changes

Dormitory fees during vacation (applied from Summer Vacation 2020)
- SWU dormitory requires all residents to move out from the dormitory a week before each new semester begins.
- Meanwhile, SWU allows international students to reside free of charge during the duration of between semesters in consideration of not providing temporary residence during that period. HOWEVER, starting from Summer Vacation 2020, KRW 62,000 will be charged for this period if student prefer to stay in dormitory.
- Dormitory fees subject to change in case if the tuition of undergraduate program changes.

Class hours and Official Transcript for Intensive Korean Courses
- Class hours for Intensive Korean was changed from 160 hours to 120 hours from Fall Semester 2019.
- As class hours has been changed, the official transcript issuance will be changed as well.
- Grades in the spring and Fall Semesters and grades in the summer and winter vacations will be issued in separate forms.
- Please see the example attached in this e-mail.

Medical Insurance
- From February 28, 2021, international students (D-2, D-4) will also be eligible for National Health Insurance.
- We will inform you of the details. Until then, student must purchase insurance from home country before entering Korea or purchase medical insurance provided by SWU after entering Korea.

Residence tax
- From February 8, 2019, international students must pay residence tax if they stay in Korea for more than one year.

Courses

- The course schedule of international students would be any combination of the following categories:
  - Major and General Education Courses in Korean
  - Major and General Education Courses in English: There are roughly 20-30 Courses taught in English in General Education and across the majors.
  - Korean Language Program
    International students may choose to take Korean Language Center (KLC) Courses free of charge.
    KLC has an intensive program where you may take heavy load of Korean language course (120 hours per semester), as well as general education courses that will give you a brief introduction to Korean language.

Course Registration

- A student should take a minimum of 10 credits and a maximum of 18 credits per semester while enrolled in Seoul Women’s University.

- The list of courses that open for each semester will be provided at the time of course registration. Please refer to the list of classes of the previous academic year.
- Once all the classes are filled up, you will no longer be able to register as there are limited seats per class. Therefore, avoid registering for the same courses with many international students. (The only exception is Korean Language Courses)
- If you wish to register for Korean Language Course, you MUST take a placement test at SWU.
- The first week of class is the Add/Drop period in which you can add or drop the courses. Specific steps and the period will be announced during the orientation for international students. You should keep in mind that you may not be able to register for some classes as there are limited seats and there are some courses that you cannot drop.

Issuance of Official Transcript

- A Official Transcript will be mailed to the International Affairs Team of students’ home university after the entire exchange period has ended.
Life @ SWU

Airport Pick-up
• "Entrance" offers an airport pick-up service on February 26, 2020. (Paid service, KRW 30,000~50,000)
• Book a Pick-up: https://www.enter-biz.com/swu
• If you are going to come to SWU campus by yourself, please provide your arrival information (flight number, arrival time at SWU campus) to ir_admin@swu.ac.kr no later than February 19, 2020.

Dormitory and Housing
• International Residence Hall provides foreign students with basic residence environment as well as facilities necessary for living so that students can focus on their studies. Students from different nationalities reside in International Residence Hall, so it is a great opportunity to learn each other’s culture and how to live harmoniously. Female exchange or undergraduate students of SWU live in International Residence Hall, but need to move to Shalom House during breaks.
• Depending on the country of the exchange student’s home institution, SWU may provide a 30% discount for the on-campus dormitory for the regular semesters. This scholarship is in principle for the students from the third world countries.

Dormitory Check-in for New Incoming International Students
• February 26, 2020 (wed.), 9 am - 8 pm
• Please plan to arrive at campus on this date. If you intend to stay in Korea before and/or after the program, you must find your own housing.

Guidance for off campus housing
• Male students must find an off-campus housing by themselves. (SWU may assist in finding a place to stay)
