Language Requirements	All the courses at Universidad del Valle are given in Spanish. It is mandatory to upload a Spanish certificate of B2 proficiency level while applying on our platform.
University services	Universidad del Valle offers access to all campus facilities such as library, restaurant (lunch costs USD $0,65), sport fields and pool.
Accommodation	Universidad del Valle provides a database to the international students before their arrival where they can find multiple options to rent a room in Cali.
Average cost of living	International students spend approximately COP $1.000.000 - $1.500.000 (USD $332 - 550) per month, including accommodation, food, transportation and cultural activities.
Buddy program	Our office will designate a “parcero” (buddy) for each international student.
Semester contribution	Every international student must pay administrative fees at the beginning of the semester; the cost depends on the educational level and on the existence of an agreement between Universidad del Valle and the sending institution.
Transcripts of records	Transcripts are sent to the student in digital format and the originals are given directly to the students before their departure. If the students cannot receive the transcript, they must leave a person in charge to receive the document in Cali, this person will be responsible to send it by mail to them.
