

Social Media & Online Marketing Intern in Bali

Bali based Real Estate Agency looking to hire an intern with strong knowledge and passion for the digital marketing landscape. If filters, hashtags and blogging is your world, you are the right candidate for us! We are looking for someone who is setting up new social media channels, revising our strategy and creating various content.

The intern hired for this position will need excellent spoken and written English skills & is experienced in writing English articles in the best case.

As we are open to fresh & new ideas and want to give as much freedom & room to grow as possible for the right candidate, we are also seeking strong critical thinking, a high level of independence, self-motivation and creativity. For your work in Bali you will also need an international driving license and know how to drive a motorbike.

Experience an entrepreneurial international work field and join our team on the exciting journey of growing online! Send your CV and complete application with your earliest possible start date to marketing@balitrealtyproperties.com and become a part of our Bali family!

Responsibilities

- Online outreach and promotion using Facebook, Instagram & more
- Growth monitoring & reporting
- Content strategy & creation for our blog and social media channels
- Editing content using Adobe Photoshop & Illustrator
- Cost/benefit analysis of campaigns
- Competitor analysis
- Assistance in various online & offline marketing tasks

Requirements

Students applying for this internship should be Marketing/Business/Tourism majors with fluent English skills and with a high affinity for online & social media topics.

Majors

Marketing, Business, Communications, Tourism

Start date: Asap, flexible

Internship duration: 6 months

