Admission Thresholds for Non-EU/Non-EEA Nationals Applying for Admission to the First Subject Semester of a Restricted Admission Programme at the University of Würzburg in the 2026/27 Winter Semester

Places were allocated to applicants based on the average grade of their higher education entrance qualification. If there was a tie among applicants, it was broken by drawing lots.

Degree programme	Procedure	The following applicants were admitted:
Academic Speech and Language Therapy/Logopaedics (Bachelor of Science – 210 ECTS credits)	Main procedure	No applications received
Biomedicine (Bachelor of Science – 180 ECTS credits)	Main procedure Clearing	All applicants with a grade of 1.0 All applicants with a grade of 1.6 or better (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots)
Media Communication (Bachelor of Science – 180 ECTS credits)	Main procedure	All applicants
Medicine (state examination)	Main procedure Clearing	All applicants with a grade of 1.0 (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots) All applicants with a grade of 1.0 (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots)
Pharmacy (state examination)	Main procedure Clearing	All applicants with a grade of 1.2 or better All applicants with a grade of 1.5 or better (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots)
Psychology (Bachelor of Science – 180 ECTS credits)	Main procedure Clearing	All applicants with a grade of 1.6 or better (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots) All applicants
Dentistry (state examination)	Main procedure	All applicants with a grade of 1.0 or better (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots)

	Clearing	All applicants with a grade of 1.1 or better (a tie among several applicants was broken by drawing lots)

Last updated: October 2026