

Declaration on Accuracy of Information by the Applicant

I hereby confirm the accuracy and completeness of all the information stated in the application form as well as the declaration of financial need and will inform the University of Würzburg of any change to my financial situation immediately. I am aware that any false or incomplete information, in particular with regards to my financial situation, may lead to loss of the scholarship and the obligation to pay back the scholarship in full, including money already paid out. I agree to inform the Graduate Academy and the International Office in writing immediately of any change to the above stated information. I agree that after applying, we may contact other scholarship providers mentioned in my application.

I know and agree that this application does not grant me a legal right or claim to a scholarship.

I confirm that I will be present at the University of Würzburg during the time I receive the scholarship.

I declare that I have no other income (direct or indirect) as mentioned in the application and I am not expecting any other income as of now.

I am aware that I might be legally charged and the scholarship will be withdrawn if the given information proves to be false.

I agree that my data may be checked with by German authorities (including the Sozialamt, Arbeitsamt, Finanzamt, Ausländerbehörde, other Funding organisations etc.)
