

Punching machine test Test «Poinçonneuse»

Inv.-No.	01035
Developer	Jean-Maurice Lahy (1872-1943)
Manufacturer	unknown
Date	~1919 - 1939
Material	Wood (Oak), Cast Iron, Brass (nickel plated)
Dimensions (h ,w, d; in mm)	410 x 245 x 100

This test was developed to check work performance in monotonous activities such as punching. It can be used to record speed and accuracy. It was mainly used in the transport sector in France.

Literature: <https://arimep.org/index.php/stcrp-laboratoire/>