

Puzzle Box

Inv.-No.	02452
Developer	William Healy and Grace Fernald
Manufacturer	C. H. Stoelting Co., Chicago, Illinois
Date	First half 20th century
Material	Wood, Steel, Glas, Brass (nickel plated), Cord
Dimensions (h ,w, d; in mm)	90 x 180 x 180

The Puzzle Box was developed by inspirations from animal psychology. With it, one can observe skills of analyzing a complicated mechanism, attention and perseverance. Seven successive steps have to be carried out to finally open the box.

Literature:

Healy, W. & Fernald, G.M. (1911). Tests for Practical Mental Classification. Psychological Monographs, XIII(2), 1-54.

Bronner, A. F., Healy, W., Gladys, M.L. & Shimberg, M.E. (1927). A Manual of Individual Mental Tests and Testing. Boston: Little.