

Invitation to the 8th networking event “Market of Opportunities – ESD at the JMU”

Dear colleagues, students, and all members of JMU,

We warmly invite you to the 8th networking meeting “Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) in Studies and Teaching”. The focus will be on “Market of Opportunities – ESD at the JMU”. This semester, the focus will be on lecturers at JMU itself: colleagues from different faculties and institutions will first present their best-practice examples in the Botanical Garden and then provide deeper insights into their work at a Market of Opportunities. This will give you the opportunity to take a closer look at individual practical examples that may be relevant to your work.

This invitation is addressed to all teaching staff, students and employees of the University of Würzburg.

When?

June 24th, 2025
5 to 7 p.m.

Where?

Botanical Garden
Julius-von-Sachs-Platz 4
97082 Würzburg

Programme see page 2
The event will take place in German.

For more details on the programme as well as further announcements, visit our WueCampus course rooms:
