

Work cited:

Rieff, David (2015): "In Praise of Forgetting: Historical Memory and its Ironies". Yale University Press. New Haven and London.

Additional material:

To learn more about Ground Zero's hidden symbols, click the following link: <https://911groundzero.com/blog/rebuilding-ground-zero-architects-behind-911-memorial-museum/> Besides the information you are already familiar with, you'll be able to gain a whole new perspective on what 9/11 Memorial is actually trying to tell us. Tip: If you want to make things extra exciting, try to guess the meaning of each symbol before reading the captions. This way, you'll feel as if you were our interview partner yourself!

During the interviews all of the participants suggested that some kind of info board, would have been highly contributing to the understanding of the monument. The witch hunt memorial in VARDØ, Norway remembers the faith of 91 humans, who had been executed in VARDØ. Some of the wrongly accused have similar stories to that of Diether Diepolt. The approach of VARDØ however, is a totally different one. It explicitly lists the lives and faiths of the executed. See for yourself, how you engage with this modern approach of a memorial.

<https://hyperallergic.com/466257/a-timely-remembrance-for-witch-hunts-of-the-past-by-louise-bourgeois-and-peter-zumthor/>

Profiles of

- Prof. Dr. Mike Butler: <https://www.flagler.edu/directory/faculty--staff/michael-butler.php> [08-11-2021]
- Assoc. Prof. Dr. . Anna Burnley: <https://www.flagler.edu/directory/faculty--staff/anna-burnley.php> [08-20-2021]