

Study and Examination Regulations for General Module Studies at the University of Würzburg as of May 15, 2019

(Link: http://www.uni-wuerzburg.de/aml\_veroeffentlichungen/2019-36)

This text has been carefully prepared and is based on current statute regulations. No guarantee can be made, however, regarding its accuracy. Only the officially published text is legally binding; the location of the official text is listed above.

The University of Würzburg issues the following statute pursuant to art. 13. para 1. sentence 2 in conjunction with art. 58. para. 1 sentence 1 and art. 61. para. 2. sentence 1 in their most current versions of the Bavarian Higher Education Act (BayHSchG) on May 23, 2006 (GVBl. S. 245, BayRS 2210-1-1-WFK).

§ 1 Area of Application (1) This statute states regulations for the modules listed in the attached document for general module studies at the University of Würzburg (JMU). (2) The most current version of the General Study and Examination Regulations from July 1, 2015 (ASPO) (link: http://www.uni-wuerzburg.de/aml\_veroeffentlichungen/2015-4) in conjunction with the most current version of the Subject-specific Guidelines (FSB) (particularly including the field of study descriptions) in the field of study to which the specific module is assigned, applies to the examination regulations and procedures for each module within the general module studies.

§ 2 Admission to General Module Studies (1) To enrol in general module studies, applicants must verify that they meet the qualification and admission requirements of the field of study to which the module is assigned, based on the attached list. 2 Applicants must list the field of study to which the module they wish to complete is assigned. (2) 1 The most current version of Regulations for Enrolment, Re-enrolment, and Withdrawal at the University of Würzburg from March 7, 2007 (link: http://www.uni-wuerzburg.de/aml\_veroeffentlichungen/2007-03) are applicable regarding required language proficiency. 2 Verification of German-language proficiency for applicants who do not hold university entrance qualifications or an appropriate degree from a German-speaking institution are waived based on § 8 para. 3 of the Framework for German Language Tests for Study at German Universities (RODT: Resolution by the HRK (University Rectors' Conference) on June 8, 2004 and the KMK (Cultural Ministers' Conference) on June 25, 2004 and amended by the HRK on November 10, 2015 and the KMK November 12, 2015).

(3) Students who are already officially enrolled in a field(s) of study at the JMU will not be accepted into general module studies. (4) Enrolment for general module studies within one of the fields of study listed in the attached document must be completed online.

§ 3 Examination Board 1The examination board of the field of study to which a module is assigned is responsible for final decisions regarding acceptance into the general module studies as well as implementation of the general module studies within their field of study. 2The examination board carries out the examination procedure in accordance with the relevant statute and is responsible for all decisions, with exception to the actual tests and their evaluations. 3The most current ASPO regulations in conjunction with the most current and relevant subject-specific guidelines are applicable for the general module studies.

§ 4 Structure of the General Module Studies and Standard Period of Study

(1) 1General Module Studies will be offered in winter and summer semester. 2A module within the general module studies can only be completed in the semester to which it is assigned on the attached document. (2) 1Modules amounting to a maximum of 30 ECTS points can be completed in one semester. 2Slight variances, especially when occurring due to a combination of various module types (ECTS-points-size) will be permitted. (3) 1The standard period of study for general module studies is one semester. 2One semester is also the maximum number of semesters possible. Students will automatically be withdrawn from enrolment upon completion of the semester. 3A new enrolment is required for re-acceptance into the general module studies. (4) 3The most current ASPO Regulations in conjunction with the most current and relevant subject-specific guidelines are applicable in regard to registering for and completing an exam within the general module studies.

§ 5 Retaking Exams in General Module Studies (1) 1A failed exam in general module studies can only be retaken once, in deviation from the ASPO and the subject-specific guidelines. 2An exam cannot be retaken twice. (2) 1Retaking an exam in the following semester requires a new enrolment in general module studies. 2If an exam is retaken and failed, the respective module cannot be taken again even in the case of a new enrolment. (3) Voluntarily repeating a successfully-completed module exam in the case of a new enrolment is not permitted.

§ 6 Certificates for Successfully-completed Modules

Students can print a certificate of successfully completed modules with corresponding grades, and ECTS points from the JMU online management system once they have completed their general module studies semester.

§ 7 Date of Validity This statute takes effect on April 1, 2019.